Last year's Best Male Athlete of the Year at Loyola, Jimmy has indeed made his mark in the sporting world. Considered one of the most outstanding athletes in Canada, he has played for our National Soccer Team, as well as a stint with the now defunct Montreal Olympics. His hockey career was launched with the Jr. B Pierrefonds Pirates, where he was an all-star goaltender for three years. In his second season with the Warriors, Jimmy was rated by many, Canada's top collegiate goaltender last year. He is an honours Engineering student.

-----------------------	----	----	-----	---------------

Former MVP and high scoring defenseman with Town of Mount Royal, Jr. B, Bob is in his fourth season at Concordia. Excellent shot and a smart puck handler, he led the Warrior defense in scoring in his rookie season. Tryout with Toronto Maple Leafs this year.

-----------------------	----	------	-----	---------------

Dwight began his career at Loyola with the J.V. Braves, after playing Junior with the Pembroke Lumber Kings. In 1973-74 he was selected the Junior Varsity MVP. Provides the asset of being very versatile, playing both forward and defense. Excellent puck carrier and very strong defensively.

4. MIKE O'DOHERTY 25 6' 185 Arvida, Que.

Hampered early last season with a shoulder injury, Mike never quite got into top form in his first season as a Warrior. Formerly starred as a forward with the Acadia Axemen of the Atlantic Conference. Great puckhandler and good playmaker.

5. MICHEL BLAIS 21 6' 185 Amos, Que.

10th round draft choice of Atlanta Flames turned down Pro tryout to continue school. Outstanding defenseman last year with the Kingston Canadians of the OHA. Will be a solid blueliner for the Stingers with experience.

6. CLAUDE CAMPEAU 21 6' 185 Boucherville, Que.

Joined the Warriors at Christmas last season after playing with the Hull Festivals in Quebec Jr. A. Last season he had problems adjusting to the close checking, but with a half year under his belt he could become one of the steadiest blueliners in the league. Took on team's policeman role, with the highest Warrior penalty total.

8. BRIAN MARTIN 22 5'10 165 Sudbury, Ont.

With two years of college hockey under his belt, Brian Martin is an experienced member of the Concordia blueline corps. The Sudbury, Ontario native came into his own last season with the Georgians and was selected to the QUAA second all-star team. Although not the biggest of defensemen, Martin is known mostly for his defensive abilities. Rarely gets caught out of position, and head-up when he's handling the puck.

12. DON MORRIS 22 6' 185 Alexandria, Ont.

An early season scoring slump, coupled with a need for defensive help at mid-season prompted coach Paul Arsenault to try Donny at defense going into the second half of the season. He responded in fine fashion, finally gaining QUAA all-star recognition at that position. Arsenault feels that Donny is at home on the blueline, and is now better than former Warriors, Larry Carriere, and Glen Surbey. He is already attracting much attention from pro scouts.

FORWARDS

7. JOHN HARRIS 24 5'11 198 Markham, Ont.

Former star with the Toronto Marlboros of the OHA, John played a half season in the pro ranks with the Fort Wayne Comets. Deciding to return to school, he spent a season with the J.V.'s before finding a spot on the Warriors. Teamed up with Dave Wilson and Ron Hansis last season, for the best line in the league. Missed last season's playoffs due to a sternum injury. John is the Stinger's captain this season.

9. GLEN TOMALTY 21 6' 195 Brownsburg, Que.

Glen returned last season after knee surgery, and despite seeing only limited action, proved to be an effective centreman. His extra size is a valuable asset to the Warrior offense. An impressive training camp provides an outlook that Glen will gain a regular spot with the Stingers this season.

10. DAVE WILSON 22 5'10 175 Toronto, Ont.

While barely surviving the final training camp cuts last season, Dave emerged for a 41 goal clip, earning him an All-Canadian selection. Former Brockville Brave captain, Dave played briefly with the Toronto Marlboros of the OHA. Snubbed a spot on a Detroit Red Wing farm club to return to Concordia.

11. MARK SHEWCHUK 23 5'10 195 Lasalle, Que.

Formerly of the Sir George Georgians, he has had injuries prevent him from making it with the Buffalo Sabres and the Quebec Nordiques. Selected as Georgian MVP and All-Canadian in 1972-73, he holds the Sir George record for most goals in a season by a rookie. He returned to college at Loyola last season and helped the team to a National Semi-Final berth, playing his finest hockey against the Alberta Golden Bears. He is considered by coach Arsenault as the best college forward in Canada.

14. KEN SINCLAIR 20 5'7 155 Montreal, Que.

Kenny is a product of a fine line of great hockey teams at Loyola High School, coached by Ed Meagher. One of the smoothest and smartest players on the team, he has put on extra weight during the summer to help him cope with the hard checking in college hockey. Kenny is an honours student in Economics.

15.. GAETAN POTVIN 21 5'11 185 Greenfield Park, Que.

The former Laval Jr. A star and Los Angeles Kings draft choice, Gaetan Potvin joined the Georgians at Christmas. Through the dismal season the Sir George skaters had in 74-75, Potvin shone as one of the bright lights. Playing only half the season, his long skating strides and overpowering shot took him to the top three scorers on the team. Potvin looks to do even better with the Concordia squad this season because of his abilities and what coach Arseneault calls "a super attitude".

16. RON HANSIS 23 6'1 198 Pointe Clair, Que.

"Tex" returns this season after a knee injury prevented him from making the Houston Aeros of the WHA. Last season he missed the whole second half when he required an operation for badly torn ligaments in his left leg. A product of the Loyola Junior Varsity system, and was the Most Improved Player of that squad in 1971-72. Possesses one of the best shots on the team.

17. MIKE RELIHAN 24 5'10 178 Montreal, Que.

Mike is the senior member of the Stingers with four years under his belt. Came to Loyola after a stint with the Jr. A Rosemount Bombers. A very aggressive and highly mobile forward, he is an outstanding penalty killer. Missed a good deal of last season for personal reasons.

18. STEVE JONES 22 5'11 175 Melrose, Mass.

Played Junior hockey with the Jr. A Verdun Maple Leafs. The past two years skated with Northeastern University. Very fast and has an excellent shot.

19. STU DAVISON 22 5'7 150 Toronto, Ont.

This hustling forward came to Sir George last year, but sat out because of professional ineligibility. Stu has all the talents of an excellent hockey player - he can skate, he can shoot and is fast. What he lacks in size, the Toronto native makes up in aggressiveness. Was a member of the Memorial Cup winning Cornwall Royals in 1972 and took a shot at the pros before returning to school.

20. SCOTT BATEMAN 22 6' 185 Montreal, Que.

When somebody asked if Scott Bateman would make the Concordia varsity squad this year, many early camp observers would have laughed. Now everyone is taking a second look. This rugged left winger has turned everything around this year to develop into a smart hockey player. For the time he spent in the penalty box last year for Sir George, he'll make up by setting up and scoring goals for Concordia. The former LaSalle Junior is sure to be a hard working addition to coach Arsenault's line-up.

21. RANDY MOHNS 21 5'8 160 Petawawa, Ont.

Randy came to the Warriors in 1973 after being the fourth leading scorer with the Pembroke Lumber Kings. In his rookie season, Randy lead all scorers. Tireless skater and a great puck handler. He should be one of Concordia's all-time leading scorers.

22. BOB AMOS 24 5'8 155 Valleyfield, Que.

Starred on defense with the Moncton Hardy Cup Senior Champions last season. Smooth playmaker and very quick around the net. Can play forward or defense.

23. PETER SMRKE 22 5'8 190 Belleville, Ont.

Pete has served two seasons in the Loyola Junior Varsity system before cracking the Stingers line-up. Played formerly with Belleville, Jr. B. Explosive type winger, needs experience to become a regular.

24. ANDY KANE 22 6'4 220 Lasalle, Que.

A former Jr. B star with Lasalle, Andy saw brief service with the Montreal Junior Canadiens when they competed in the OHA. Three shoulder operations have hampered his career, but last season he showed signs of regaining old form. Good puck handler with a great shot, he plays either the centre or wing.

Former Loyola High School star who played one year for the Penn State Nittany Lions.
